Ma'am,

We just got off the phone with Phil and thought I had addressed his concerns.
We can state the following:

- In anticipation of the 16:30 announcement,
- Direction received from Gold Command to position POU/TSG in down room on PH to address Protective Policing concerns.
- s.37
- Low vis approach, in a down room not visible
- PPS advised.
- CIC and Troop Commander on site
- Reactive deployments only.

Available to discuss at your convenience,

Mike

Subject: s.37

Ma'am,

It has been brought to my attention that national division protective has planned to move National Division TSG to Parliament Hill in anticipation of the PM's announcement. I see this as a show of force that will undermine all of our planning efforts in this past week. Should protester see any sign of escalated and overt police presence we run the risk of possibly inciting violence. As a POU Commander, CIC, Use of Force Expert and in consultation with POU experts, I highly recommend this action be strongly reconsidered.

In consultation with Sgt. Darwin Tetreault our SME in the National Public Order Program, he advises that the s.37 [REDACTED], that consists of a level of PPE that is required to stop the violence associated with a riotous state. This level of uniform dress has been shown to inflame the crowd from a state of agitation to a riotous state. Studies have shown that the psychology behind police in this uniform are felt to be invulnerable to thrown objects and members of the crowd feel safe to throw items without causing injuries to officers.

I am available to discuss at your discretion.

Regards,

Phil
